Child Safety Expert

Health, Safety and Lifestyle Consultant

Debra Holtzman, J.D., M.A., is an internationally acclaimed child safety and health expert as well as an award-winning parenting author.

A proven specialist on the subjects of injury prevention, healthy living, toxic chemicals, child passenger safety, parenting issues, consumer issues, lifestyle, travel, food safety and pet safety, Holtzman has been helping families for nearly two decades.

Frequently appearing on regional and national television and radio, she has been featured on The Today Show, Dateline, ABC World News, CNBC, MSNBC, and The Associated Press Radio -- and in USA Weekend Magazine. Holtzman served as the official safety expert on the Discovery Health Channel's popular TV series, "Make Room for Baby." She was named an "Everyday Hero" by Reader's Digest.

Her latest book, "The Safe Baby: A Do-it Yourself Guide to Home Safety and Healthy Living," is in bookstores everywhere.

Holding a master's degree in occupational health and safety, Holtzman is a lawyer and mother of two children. She also teaches infant safety and CPR classes at Memorial Regional Hospital.
